PLDT Global Launches Free Bee Payment Service at I-Remit branches

PLDT Global Corporation (PGC) has recently teamed up with iRemit to launch its Free Bee payment service worldwide with ZERO service fees! To kick off its groundbreaking, they hosted a launch party at the I-Remit World-Wide Plaza branch in Hong Kong. This launch party is the beginning of a series of events which will take place in Singapore, Taiwan, United Kingdom, and Italy in the future. Customers also had the chance to test this new service in select I-Remit branches while a few lucky ones who made Free Bee payments during the event were able to bring home prizes.

This means, overseas Filipinos living and working in Hong Kong, Singapore, Australia, Canada, United Kingdom, Italy, and other parts of the world can now enjoy this convenient service as PLDT Global teams up with I-Remit branches worldwide.

This partnership enables customers to save more time since they can make Free Bee payments while doing financial transactions like remittances, bills payment, and government payments at I-Remit branches. And, as part of PGC's digital initiative, Free Bee payments will allow users to have their Free Bee buckets directly credited to their accounts without having to use physical cards.

Free Bee is an ad-based calling app that delivers two-minute free international calls to the Philippines. It is a game-changer for overseas Filipino workers because they can reach their families who do not have an internet connection or a smartphone. For longer calls and ad-free experience, users have the option to buy Premium Free Bee voice call plans at affordable rates from global retailers or via in-app and online purchases. Free Bee has also recently been recognized as Telecom Asia's Most Innovative Voice Solution.

"This is part of our commitment to bring more innovative and convenient digital solutions to every Filipino in every corner of the world, and hopefully, help make their connections to their families back home stronger, and their lives better," said Albert Villa-Real, Chief Commercial Officer at PLDT Global.

"As the largest non-bank Filipino-owned remittance company in the Philippines, this partnership is aligned with our own efforts of adding value to the services that we offer our kababayans living and working overseas," said Harris Jacildo, President of I-Remit.
