

33rd National Migrants Sunday

March 10, 2019

Iba, Zambales

The National Migrants Sunday has celebrated its 33rd anniversary last March 10, 2019 at Columban College, Baretto Campus, Olongapo City. It was organized by the Pastoral Care for Migrants and Itinerants in Zambales, the Diocese of Iba. The event was attended by migrants, OFWs, their family and different sponsors including I-Remit Foundation.

The main speaker of the event, Rev. Fr. Resty Ogsimer discussed the life of the migrants from all over the world and the reasons why they chose to gamble a life in another country. Rev. Fr. Resty pointed their hardships and every risk they take just to give their family a better future, even if it means not coming home at all.

The event was also a gathering for the migrants who came with their families. Production number from different organizations showcased their talent by performing traditional dance of provinces. Aside from that, videos were also shown in the event which included the video of I-Remit "I-Remit ang Iyong Tahanan" where the audience sang along with the beautiful lyrics of the I-Remit song.

The attendees enjoyed their gifts from I-Remit through raffle and by lining up in the booth to join the games of I-Remit like spinning the 'Roleta' to determine the giveaway item they will receive.
